He arrived from Holland in 1671. In 1706 he took part in the revolt against Simon van der Stel with 8 other burghers. They were Willem van Zyl, Francois du Toit, Guillaume du Toit, Hercules du Pré, Martin van Staden, Jacobus van Brakel, Jan and Nicolaas Elberts.

They were summoned to appear before the Court of Justice, charged with revolt. As they did not appear at the hearing set for 9 Aug. 1706, they were, in their absence, each fined Rx. 200 and banished to Mauritius for 5 years.

They were also declared unfit to hold any public office.

From First fifty years Project:-

4 February 1707: In the afternoon the Landdrost brought in two prisoners, agriculturists, viz., Jacobus van Brakel and Hercules des Pres, who with seven other mutineers, because of their persistent refusal to appear, and their drafting, writing and signing of libels, and defamatory letters, full of treason and insult, falsely forged against the authorities here, had on the 9th August, 1706, been condemned by the Court of Justice to be banished for five years to Mauritius. They were at once sent on board the frigate "Ter Aa."

The other seven fugitives, likewise condemned as above, are still in hiding; they are Francois and Guillian du Toit, Jan and Claas Elberts, Maarten van Staaden, Willem van Zyl and Cornelius van Nieuwkerken, who will all most certainly be captured in course of time, and as their sentences require, sent by first opportunity to their place of banishment.
